Home Life Leader

Role Description with Announcement 2023

L'Arche Greater Washington, D.C. provides homes, residential services, and places of belonging for adults who have intellectual disabilities and their assistants, in the context of a Christian community.

L'Arche GWDC is seeking a dedicated leader to guide household members through the experience and tasks of daily life and growth as a community. A strong candidate will have demonstrated maturity and confidence in entrusting others and demonstrated commitment to personal and communal growth. A Home Life Leader holds a variety of responsibilities, prioritizes the co-leadership of core members, and finds community life a source of joy and growth. The Home Life Leader role will be based in South Arlington, VA, live-in accommodations not required, but available if desired.

Role Mission: To lead a group of household members in creating a loving, trusting home life that is at the heart of community life. Guide every member in deepening their commitment to community, through prayer and trust in God.

To Apply: Submit to hr@larche-gwdc.org your interest and qualifications for the role, along with answers to these three questions:

1. What is your understanding of the priorities of a Home Life Leader?
2. Share what gifts you will bring to the Home Life Leader role?
3. What are your hopes for:
 - a. L'Arche GWDC?
 - b. Yourself?
 - c. The home life you would lead?

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and remain posted until filled.

Accompanied By: Executive Director / Community Leader

Accompanies: Household members, Interns and volunteers as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Grounded and growing in a system of values as expressed in L'Arche's Identity and Mission
- Ability to live membership with integrity through active participation in daily life and building mutually transforming relationships in the community.
- Rooted in prayer and trust in God, committed to personal/spiritual accompaniment.
- Willing and able to lead with core people.
